"It is in union with our Lord Jesus Christ, in the atmosphere of the Holy Family, that spouses will discover the secret of a stable and happy union; that they will practice mutual support, daily cooperation; that they will offer to their children and to society the example of a life where the body is subject to reason, reason to the soul and the soul to God, carrying out in themselves, by the grace of our Lord, the designs of God for humanity."
Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre

BENEDICTION AFTER MASS

We invite all parishioners to come and honor our Lady and renew your promise to her and her divine Son to be a constant light of holiness in this dark world of sin and godlessness.

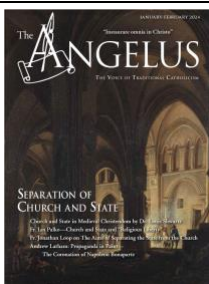

CANDLES

You will be able to pick up your purchased candles after the Feb. 2 Mass in the sacristy. Please allow time for the servers of Mass to finish their duties and clear out of the sacristy before entering. Also, please always keep a reverential silence while in the Sacristy. Someone will be there to help you get your blessed candles. If you can't make it on Feb. 2, Candles will be by the entrance door by our Lady's Altar.
