“The virtue of religion is exercised especially by adoration—not only exterior, but also interior. We need exterior adoration, for if we do not express our adoration of God outwardly in a manner worthy of Him, we risk not having an interior adoration of God, which is nothing else than our submission to Him. By this oblation that we make of ourselves to God, we submit our will, our intellect, and all that we are to the God who created us and who has awaited us for eternity.”
- Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre
