“Dearly beloved, Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow His steps who committed no sin, neither was guile found in Him. Who when He was reviled, did not revile: when He suffered, He threatened not, but delivered Himself to him that judged Him unjustly: who His own self bore our sins in His body upon the tree: that we, being dead to sins, should live to justice; by whose stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.”

“That God should be made flesh, should be made man, should have become one of our own, is the most marvelous, the most extraordinary thing that could possibly occur. He came down from Heaven, He who is almighty. Verbum caro factum est, "The Word was made flesh" (Jn. 1:14). This statement is the greatest we could imagine, the most beautiful we could imagine, and it is thanks to the most Blessed Virgin that it took place. If she had not pronounced her fiat, God would not have become flesh; He would not have become one of our own.”
