“How great is the harm caused to our souls by our forgetfulness of this spiritual world of angels—who are more numerous than men, more perfect than men. The influence of good or evil angels on our souls is much more important than we think it is. The sole fact that we have a guardian angel who watches over us whilst he contemplates the face of God should encourage us to converse with him, to call on his help that he may help us to win eternal life and to share his happiness.”

- Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre
