

PARISH NEWS

 NEW PRIORY CAR NEEDED ***

Unfortunately, one of the old Priory recently cars died a few weeks ago on a trip up to our Vancouver mission. The priests here at St. Thomas Becket are therfore down to only 2 cars. The 4 priests at the Priory use these cars to drive to our SSPX mission chapels in Vancouver Washington, and Keno and Grants Pass in Oregon. They also use them to do sick calls etc. It goes without saying that the priests need their cars in order to serve the apostolate and they do a lot of driving. So, we need at least 3 good cars. This means we will have to purchase a new car. We have found a good Toyota Corolla for $12,000. We beg your financial help and generosity to pay for this new car. Please mark your donation in an envelope. Thank you so much!!

Cost of new Toyota for Priory = $12,000

Donations so far = $200

"A ray of light enables us to see the dust that is in the air. In the same way, the lives of the Saints show up our defects. If we fail to see our faults, it is because we have not looked at the lives of holy men and women." – St. Anthony

"If we asked all the saints, who sing the glory of God and of our Lord in Heaven, what was the means, the way of their sanctification during their earthly life, there is absolutely no doubt that they would answer us, "The way of sanctification is our Lord Jesus Christ, and our Lord Jesus Christ crucified." The way of perfection, the way of sanctity, is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."
