MARRIAGE BANNS

Michael Patrick Zach, one of our parishioners here at St. Thomas Becket, will be married to Margaret Elizabeth Reardon, also one of our parishioners, on Friday December 29th, the feast of our Patron St. Thomas Becket. Any known impediment to this marriage must be made known to Fr. Pezzutti as soon as possible. Thanks.

BOOKSTORE OPEN

The Bookstore will be open today.

“What should we do, then – we, the Knights of the Immaculata? ... Today we must steadfastly and resolutely declare on which side we stand: under the banner of Christ, in His ranks, in the regiment of His Immaculate Mother – or under Satan’s flag, the flag of insurrection and perversion, of hatred of God. Here there is no settlement or compromise, for our Lord Jesus Christ himself said: “He who is not with me is against me. He who does not gather with me, scatters.” We, the Knights of the Immaculata, have made our decision..”

- St. Maximilian Kolbe

Be a Knight of the Immaculata! Bring souls to our Lady and She will bring them to Our Lord!

“A liturgy that is well done, a Mass that is well celebrated with all of the bows, all of the reverences - all that has a meaning. The Church is not trying to give us some kind of a pleasant theatrical performance. The incensing of the priest and the faithful, the bows, the genuflections, every one of those gestures has a profound significance. But some say, “why do we incense the people?” We incense God, we do not incense men. In reality, we are incensing souls sanctified by grace, because they are the temple of the Holy Ghost. And if we incense authorities with more solemnity, it is because men who hold authority are participating in God’s authority.

-Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre
