“Oh, if I could only make the faithful sing the Kyrie, the Gloria, the Credo, the Sanctus, and the Agnus Dei, like they sing the Litanies and the Tantum Ergo. That would be to me the finest triumph sacred music could have, for it is in really taking part in the Liturgy that the faithful will preserve their devotion.”

“It is in union with our Lord Jesus Christ, in the atmosphere of the Holy Family, that spouses will discover the secret of a stable and happy union; that they will practice mutual support, daily cooperation; that they will offer to their children and to society the example of a life where the body is subject to reason, reason to the soul and the soul to God, carrying out in themselves, by the grace of our Lord, the designs of God for humanity.”
