“Saint Bernard says, ‘that Noah’s ark was a type of Mary; for as, by its means, men were preserved from the flood, so are we all saved by Mary from the shipwreck of sin: but with the difference, that in the ark few were saved, and by Mary the whole human race was rescued from death.’ Therefore, in a sermon found amongst the works of Saint Athanasius, she is called ‘the new Eve, and the Mother of life;’ and not without reason, for the first was the Mother of death, but the most Blessed Virgin was the Mother of true life. Saint Theophanius of Nice, addressing Mary, says, ‘Hail, thou who hast taken away Eve’s sorrow!’ Saint Basil of Seleucia calls her the peacemaker between men and God: ‘Hail, thou who art appointed mediatrix between God and men!’ and Saint Ephrem, the pacificator of the whole world: ‘Hail, reconciler of the whole world!’”
- St. Alphonsus Liguori: “The Glories of Mary”

2ND COLLECTION TODAY WILL BE FOR THE BUILDING FUND

A second collection will be taken up for our Church and Priory building fund today. The most crucial maintenance project coming up will be putting a new roof on the priory in January. This new roof will cost $20,000. We also have some small works in the sacristy to be completed. Please help us out!
